

PRESENTS

Singing a Masterwork

IMAGINE...

The Hult Center stage...

The conductor rises to the podium...

The orchestra plays a magnificent introduction...

The chorus begins to sing...

Hundreds of voices rise in a beautiful melody...

And YOU ARE A PART OF IT!

WHAT

Young voices from throughout the region will join with the EUGENE CONCERT CHOIR, EUGENE VOCAL ARTS ENSEMBLE and the OREGON MOZART PLAYERS expanded to symphonic size, conducted by DIANE RETALLACK, for an educational presentation and performance of the "Benedictus" movement of the Beethoven Missa Solemnis, one of the greatest choral masterworks of all time.

WHO

Nearly 250 elementary and middle school students from districts Eugene 4J, Bethel and Springfield and throughout the region, have been learning the music and will all come together.

WHEN

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 2005 7:00-8:00 PM

Student performers should assemble in the Hult Center lobby no later than 6:40pm. Each school will have a designated meeting area and Concert Choir ambassadors will lead students on stage as attending families and friends are seated in the concert hall.
